

Code of conduct for group visits

To ensure that everyone has a safe, enjoyable visit we ask that all groups:

- Abide by the code of conduct
- Listen to and comply with directions from museum staff
- Be respectful towards museum staff and other visitors to the Museum
- Be mindful of noise levels in the galleries
- Do not run in the galleries or on the stairs
- Do not touch objects on open display
- Not consume food or drink in the museum other than water for refreshment
- Leave museum spaces and resources tidy after taking part in activities
- Leave coats and bags in the allocated areas only as directed by museum staff
- Use cameras with respect for other museum visitors. Photography without flash is permitted except where otherwise indicated. If in doubt please check.
- Use mobile phones with respect for other museum visitors and switch off mobile phones during facilitate sessions.
